Volunteers help in our success

One of our greatest resources in delivering quality affordable services in a caring environment is the strong spirit of volunteerism in our community.

The first thing you see when you walk through our doors is a welcoming volunteer at the reception desk. Grace Gibson, Carmen Litschewski, Mable Sanders, June Zacharias, Alice Billmeyer, Helen Smith, Doris Tallmadge, and Kathryn Stuart all ensure that everyone who enters our home is welcomed and directed to the resources they are seeking.

We also benefit from a myriad of "behind the scenes" contributions. Stuart LaRocque, Ted Anderson, Cheri Stagner, Lonnie Williamson, and Don Germano have helped us with various aspects of building and grounds operations. Charlotte White, Michelle Foster, Judy Hayward, Diane Dayhoff, Monte Rhodes, Lisa Adams, Andy Russell, Tammy Russell, Harold & Edith Miller, and Bob Campbell have helped enhance our activity program.

The spirit of community also extends to various organizations as well. Daylight Donuts, Garfield County Sheriff's Auxiliary, Parachute Library, EnCana, Williams, Clark's Market, Wal-Mart, Grand Valley Echo, Keller-Williams, KSUN Radio, Wells Fargo Bank, Guzzler Liquors, Parachute True-Value Hardware, Mt. Callahan Foundation, Grand Valley

Kiwanis Club, and numerous others have helped us over the years. As you can see, there are lots of people to thank. We extend our humble apologies to anybody we've omitted here, and wish to extend heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has helped us during our twelve years in the Parachute/Battlement Mesa community.

Mesa Vista hosts services that are available not just to the residents we serve, but to everyone in the Parachute/Battlement Mesa Community.

Local beautician Vonnie Musso provides quality services at affordable rates. Call 285-1844 and ask for Vonnie to schedule an appointment.

Columbine Home Health provides a podiatry clinic to assist with foot care 1pm—4pm the 1st Thursday of every month. Call Kathryn Stuart at 285-9788 to schedule an appointment for next month's clinic. Donations are not required, but certainly appreciated.
