Generosity Abounds from Residents this Holiday Season

Cinnamon Park residents are once again busy making crafts in preparation for the annual Cinnamon Park Craft and Bake Sale. This annual fundraiser, always held the first Friday and Saturday in December, has become a tradition for many in the Longmont community and it is definitely an important event in the lives of the residents at Cinnamon Park.

“Residents, staff, families and friends all join together to host this event”, said Debbie Setlock, Manager at Cinnamon Park. “It brings us all together, whether it’s making handmade crafts, baking bread, candy or cookies, decorating the buildings, or volunteering during the event.”

Cinnamon Park is lucky to have some very talented residents who have been working hard making items for this year’s sale. Virginia Black is one of those special residents. Virginia has lived at Cinnamon Park for the past 3 years. Her most favorite hobby is doing embroidery work. “Embroidery is like a picture that slowly comes to life”, said Virginia. She learned this craft when she was 12 years old at her neighborhood recreation hall. “I have enjoyed this hobby throughout my life and it is very relaxing for me.” Virginia has been a faithful contributor to our sale each year. This year she has made a bed size hand embroidered bedspread, a crib size Sunbonnet Sue quilt, pillowcases and dishtowels. “She has really outdone herself this year and I am so touched by her dedication and generosity”, said Setlock.

Kathy Bennett, is another resident, busy crocheting afghans and other hand embroidered items. Kathy says she enjoys working with her hands. “It gives me purpose and I enjoy making gift items for the sale”.

We have also received hand made items from Gene Moore, Martha Carilli, and we received some special items from our dear late Della Gallegos. “We are truly lucky to experience the talents of this special generation. I hope we have many guests for our sale this year .” -Debbie Setlock, Manager

Mark your calendar for this special holiday program, held on Sunday, December 18th at 2pm in House B. Based upon the movie, “It’s a Wonderful Life, this resident and staff production will amaze and inspire you. Bring some warmth into your holidays by learning from our residents the secrets to “a wonderful life”.
