

Cliffview Administrator: Jeff Pexton

Jeff Pexton has worked with Senior Housing Options since 2009. He is the administrator of SHO's assisted living property Cliffview in Kremmling, Colorado.

Jeff has worked extensively in Grand County both as a successful business owner and banking leader. Jeff and his family have lived in the area since 1980. He has been an involved citizen and advocate for improving the health care options in the community.

Jeff has served as the chairman of the Grand County Rural Health Network since its inception and is a member of the Grand County Health Advisory Committee. He was a former Kremmling Memorial Hospital District board member for eight years, and currently serves as chairman of the Middle Park Facilities Corporation. He was also involved in the creation of the Kremmling Chamber of Commerce and served on its board. Jeff's wife Marty, another SHO administrator, currently works at the Chamber.

Not only does Jeff bring a strong sense of leadership and experience, but he is also deeply loyal to the community and the people of Kremmling. His commitment is evident in his choice of positions, both paid and volunteer, and in choosing Grand County as his home.
