Parachute/Battlement Mesa to gain eight affordable senior apartments

By Mesa Vista Assisted Living Residence Activity Director
Kathy Germano

Mesa Vista Assisted Living Residence has formed a new partnership with the Garfield County Housing Authority that will bring eight more affordable apartments to the Parachute/Battlement Mesa senior community.

These rooms are geared towards independent seniors who do not require extra assistance with activities of daily living. We expect the apartments to be available this fall. For further details you can contact Scott or Kathy at Mesa Vista at 285-1844.

We had a wonderful time at the Grand Valley Days Parade and won a first-place blue ribbon. The residents very much enjoyed decorating their van and the Red Neck Mardi Gras theme was a lot of fun.

We visited Rifle Falls on Aug. 7. We also attended the Garfield County Fair Rodeo on Aug. 9 and entered a wreath the residents made for the open class craft exhibit.

Celebrating birthdays are Faye Genrich on Aug. 24, and Ralph Irwin and James Atkins on the Aug. 27. We wish you a happy birthday!
