Fun in July at Mesa Vista

By Kathy Germano, Mesa Vista Assisted Living Residence activity director

The Fourth of July celebration at Mesa Vista was a hit. There were many family guests to share in the delicious and plentiful food and a great time was had by all.

The residents had a fun visit at the Rifle Creek Museum last month and the weather was perfect for a picnic at Centennial Park.

The residents also had a chance to make plum jelly with Charlotte White in July, which was a treat for everyone.

Thanks to a generous donation from Encana Oil and Gas the air conditioning in Mesa Vista's van was repaired, which will allow for more travel in the hot summer months.

Upcoming trips include a visit to the Glenwood Caverns for a tram ride and dinner and a fall color tour on the Grand Mesa.

Residents will be at the Rifle Senior Center for lunch on Aug. 16 and at the Parachute Valley Senior Center for lunch on Aug. 29.

Upcoming birthday celebrations are Faye Genrich on Aug. 24 and Ralph Irwin on Aug. 27. Happy birthday wishes to Faye and Ralph!
