Mission Moment

As you have heard, Barth Hotel Assisted living, a SHO community, closed its doors on January 10, 2025. The SHO team relocated all 53 residents.

We want to thank the Colorado Assisted Living communities and many professionals that work with older adults that helped us with this monumental task. We are fortunate that 21 Barth residents now are at home in one of our other four Assisted Living communities. Six Barth team members also found a position at one of our Affordable Housing or Assisted Living Communities.

Raymond moved into the Barth in 2023. He has been at Park Hill for two months. He says "I like the staff and food at Park Hill. Everyone is so nice."

Brad was a resident at the Barth Hotel since 2017. He misses the Barth but he is adjusting to being at Cinnamon Park Assisted Living.

Originally from Calgary, Mike says Mesa Vista Assisted Living reminds him of home. "It's utopia. Thank you for getting me up here." Mike had been a resident of the Barth since 2017.

John (not his real name), a Barth resident since 2018, is looking forward to fishing the minute the weather is warmer. Madison House has been voted best assisted living in Montezuma County since 2010.

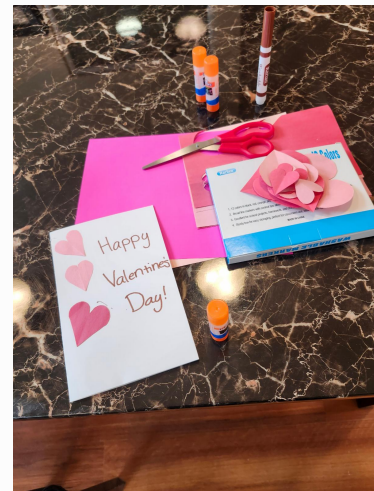

Your donations make a difference in the lives of our residents.

The Park Hill Adult Day Program is Open!

The Park Hill Adult Day Program opened its doors on February 10, 2025. The Adult Day Program serves people impacted by Dementia and will provide both social connection and engagement, as well as memory enrichment and new experiences for participants. Our program can also provide caregivers with the break from caregiving that they need during the day, and help them continue to care for their loved ones at home by freeing up time, energy and resources. The cost of the program is intentionally priced at an accessible cost point to serve a critical need in the community. We offer programming and enrichment that not only keeps participants safe, but helps them maintain and build new neuropathways, which can help slow dementia and improve the experience of aging. A day program like ours can help keep people out of institutional care communities and help them age in place. To enroll or for more information call 303-818-6775 or email CFisk@SeniorHousingOptions.org.
