

SHO Under Construction

Construction Zone

Madison House in Cortez and Park Hill in Denver are currently undergoing renovations. Madison House (right top) is renovating their shared rooms into private rooms for all their residents. Park Hill (pictured second and third right) is upgrading community spaces and adding four residential units. Park Hill is also adding an Adult Day Program in the Fall of 2024 . Construction will soon begin at Cinnamon Park in Longmont to convert all rooms to single occupancy. The Madison House residents pictured above also have a new table and chairs for their next tea party thanks to a generous grant from the LOR Foundation.

Please Donate

Due to the upcoming construction at Park Hill, the kitchen will be unavailable for a month and we need to provide warm meals for our residents. If you are part of a restaurant and can donate meals, please contact Tamar at 303-595-4464 x 114. For cash donations to help defray the costs, select the button below.

Celebrating 45 Years!

SHO is celebrating 45 years this year! In 1979 Senior Housing Options was founded because the development of downtown office space displaced over 2400 low-income elderly from their homes.

Save the date to join us in celebrating our 45 years of providing residential communities and caring services to older adults in Colorado at the Space Gallery in Denver on October 16, 2024.

Mission Moment

Steven (pictured) came to live at the Barth Hotel in September 2023. Steven has been homeless off and on for 40 years since he was honorably discharged from the Navy. Stationed in Africa, he has been around the world four times. He has worked many jobs in his life including carpentry, painting cars, and working in a warehouse.

Steven says he loves living at the Barth because it is affordable. He has met so many nice people here. He likes the location because it gives him access to the bus and transit system. He also likes to read the Bible. His motto is "Worry doesn't solve anything".
